

Unsolicited telemarketer's calls have dropped dramatically with New Jersey's actions. This should be expanded not rolled back in any way. The elderly are especially prone as victims of unscrupulous telemarketers. I know, I must reassure my mother periodically that she can just hang up!